

Answer Hunt Game

Basic Volunteer Training

Use the Leader's Digest and Safety-Wise to find the answers to the questions below.

Include "Standard number" (when applicable) and page number where you found the answer.

1 It is recommended that written parental approval be obtained from parents or guardians before girls participate in all or part of a contemporary sensitive issues event. True or False?	2 Girl Scouts may campaign in their roles as Girl Scouts for someone running for President of the United States. True or False?	3 Any money left over at the end of the troop year in the troop treasury can be kept by the Girl Scout leader as a "bonus" for all the hard work she or he did. True or False?
4 Daisies can sell calendars but not cookies. True or False?	5 Brownies can go camping. True or False?	6 Brownie Girl Scouts should participate in archery. True or False?
7 How often should girls have health examinations in order to participate in special activities such as resident camping?	8 It's OK for there to be only one adult leader with no assistant leader in a Junior Girl Scout troop of 15 girls. True or False?	9 A girl shall not be denied admission to any troop because of race, color, ethnicity, creed, national origin, or socioeconomic status. True or False?
10 Whenever possible, troops and groups should include girls from different age and grade levels. True or False?	11 Girls and adults work in partnership in making decisions and planning. True or False?	12 It is appropriate for a troop planning a trip to England to contact the Girl Guide Association office directly for help with its travel plans. True or false?
13 These activities among others, are not permitted as Girl Scout program activities: paintball, riding ATVs, trampolining. True or False?	14 Only people with complete Girl Scout uniforms may participate in Girl Scout activities. True or False?	15 The selling of Girl Scout cookies should be assumed by adults. True or False?
16 Girl Scout leaders should spend most of their time getting girls to earn as many Recognitions as possible. True or False?	17 A standard first aid kit should include plastic bags, scissors and safety pins. True or False?	18 How many Girl Scout program standards are there? For whom are they written?